Auction Sale Of Building Site ON SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1910

at four o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, corner of Beacon and Sheridan streets, Barre City. This is one of the finest in the city, a corner lot with a frontage of 105 feet on Beacon street and 65 feet on Sheridan street, plenty of room for two houses, and is located in one of the most popular residential sections of the city, well above the noise, dust and dirt of the business part of the town. A residence on this lot enjoys the purest air and commands the finest view in all directions. We know of no place which would be more desirable, and, in fact, it is an ideal spot to erect a house and make that home you have been thinking about. We are authorized by the owners to sell the same to the highest bidder without reserve. We will be pleased at any time before the sale to show this lot to any and all who may be interested.

GOVERNOR BROKE GROUND

For New Women's Dormitory at Middlebury College.

Middlebury, June 22.—Governor George H. Prouty broke ground yesterday afternoon for the erection of the new women's dormitory, presented to the institution by Dr. D. K. Parsons of Chicago. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of students and alumni of the college, who were on hand to attend the alumni luncheon. Charles A. Adams, vice-president of the Alumni association, presided at the luncheon, at which Dr. E. B. Higley and Mr. Adams spoke briefly, giving great credit to Dr. John M. Thomas, president of the college, for the way in which he is endeavoring to build up the institution.

The principal address of the afternoon was delivered by Robert Collins of London, the representative of the Associated Press of that city, on "The Priceless Treasure Middlebury Has in Her History and Tradition." He was followed by Dr. Thomas, who sketched the progress of the work of raising money to build the new dormitory.

At the close of the luncheon, Governor Prouty spoke briefly and then turned the first sod. The new building will be built of rock faced marble and will accommodate 60 girls. It is expected that the dormitory will be ready for occupancy next fall.

Yesterday afternoon and last evening the Latin play, "Temporibus Hominis Arbitria" was presented in a specially constructed theatre holding 1200 people. It was given in a splendid manner at each performance and elicited great applause from the large audiences.

especially in south and easterly sections of the city, also nearly all houses built for homes the past year were built in this section of the city. I have lots on many desirable streets and mostly in eastern section of city, on Hill St., Ayer St., Kirk St., Quarry Circle, Camp, Tremont, East, Currier, Grandview, Long St., any of which I will sell at favorable prices, or more favorable than equally as desirable lots can be had elsewhere. If you were to buy a cow you would usually see a party who had many for sale, rather than buy a man's only cow. Take a walk during the next day or two, visiting above streets. Notice they are our best streets and lots well elevated. No fear of surface water or floods.
